Fashionable men and women from all over the world are featured in an Art Museum lecture series, "In Vogue Through the Ages." From sandals and togas to silks and satins, their clothes reflect the politics and ideas, as well as the stylish taste, of their times. The lectures are presented on Thursdays at 1:30 pm in the Museum Lecture Hall, from now until October 27, by Barbara Kathman, Rebecca Martin, and Mariana Carpinisan, instructors in the Museum's Department of Art History and Education. All lectures are free and open to the public.
